© 2018 The College for Adult Learning TOID 22228
Welcome to The College for Adult Learning!

Congratulations on selecting the program of study you are about to commence. We are confident you will enjoy your time with us and achieve the best possible outcomes from your study.

This Student Handbook contains important information about The College for Adult Learning including the services we provide and the responsibilities of both students and staff. It also contains information about relevant policies and procedures.

About the College for Adult Learning

The College for Adult Learning (CAL) was established to provide flexible, responsive training to mature, work experienced adults who want to select programs of study that suit their vocational and career requirements, and those who are looking to enter a new career with the head start of a work-ready vocational qualification.

CAL is committed to the highest quality education and training delivery. As a Registered Training Organisation (RTO) TOID 22228, we provide Nationally Recognised Training (NRT) programs that are registered by the Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA). The quality of our training is rigorously monitored and assessed to ensure we provide a high standard of quality service.

CAL is committed to designing and delivering high quality and innovative services to the Small to Medium Enterprises (SME) Market and to experienced professionals who are committed to ongoing professional development and lifelong learning. By spending time understanding our customers’ needs, the CAL team ensures that our programs deliver quality outcomes to individuals and to industry. By offering a one-on-one coaching model with online learning, as well as coach/assessor lead training programs, we not only ensure each learning program is appropriate and tailored to the specific needs of the learner but, we are also ensuring that the learning can be undertaken in the workplace or at home. CAL offers individual learning programs specifically designed to suit the needs of each person and/or the organisation.

CAL delivers programs in the following areas:

- Diploma programs online, in workshops and in intensive and/or blended study mode for practising, experienced professionals and workers who have at around two or more years of applicable work experience,

- Accredited training, coaching and Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) services across a suite of Management Qualifications.
• A range of non-accredited short courses and purpose designed webinars across a range of topics in Leadership, Teams, Management, Project Management, Business Development, Sales, Administration and Customer Service.

• Management, HRM, Project Management and Business Sales Consultancy Services.

CAL only offers programs to the experienced worker (not school leavers or international students). So, we understand our learners often come with varied and often substantial work experience and therefore do not (usually) require the introductory and work ready foundational learning so often found in programs that cater for school leavers.

All CAL programs focus on the skills and knowledge required to perform the designated role as well as the foundation and underpinning skills or, in many cases, the body of knowledge that underpins a specific function, and all our courses are designed around the participant’s personal and specific learning needs. This means every program is designed for each individual student with start and end dates based around their priorities and work requirements.

All trainers and assessors employed by CAL are required to demonstrate equivalent competency to the qualifications and units of competence they deliver and assess as well as have significant and current industry experience. All CAL trainers and assessors hold the industry mandated Certificate IV in Training and Assessment TAE40116 (or its successor) as a minimum training qualification and they regularly participate in professional development activities that keep them up to date with their vocational qualifications and their training qualifications. Wherever possible, members of the CAL team work part-time so that they can continue to work in their chosen industry sector, to maintain their currency and remain at the cutting edge of industry developments and changes in work practices that can then be passed on to all CAL students.

As part of their ongoing professional development and CAL’s continuous improvement, our training and assessment practices are moderated regularly where our trainers and assessors together with invited industry specialists, review an aspect of our training programs as well as the assessment tools and practices for selected units of competence.
Benefits to CAL Learners

The benefits of learning with The College for Adult Learning include:

- Course structure focuses on what you need to know now, does not include ‘foundation’ or ‘basic’ work ready skills that experienced workers already know,
- Flexible delivery means you can decide how/when you learn as well as how long it takes you to complete your studies,
- One to one support given to all participants with their own learning coach,
- Access to a variety of courses and webinars designed to suit the busy professional,
- Access to the most up to date and cutting-edge knowledge and skills (with all programs in a continuous improvement/and updating process to reflect changes in industry practices and ensure currency),
- Access to additional (elective) online learning tutorials at no additional cost, where additional and/or remedial skills/knowledge is required,
- Access to peer networks and the potential to form professional relationships,
- Support to craft a professional resume and letter of application as well as optional guidance and coaching support to succeed at an interview,
- Ongoing career and job advice as well as informal mentoring support for exceptional existing students and CAL graduates.
Course Information

All generic course information; including content, competencies and vocational outcomes can be found in specific course brochures located on the CAL website at www.collegeforadultlearning.edu.au More detailed and specific course and unit information, including the duration of study for a specific course, can be found in the relevant Participant Guide for the specific online program/unit of study or in the information pack provided to online students in their first online unit at the commencement of their studies. Information about assessments can be found in the relevant Student Assessment Guide and in the specific Assessment Task document provided for each unit of study as well as each student’s Individual Learning Plan.

The majority of CAL courses are delivered online at www.courses.collegeforadultlearning.com.au, with some courses being offered for delivery at our Melbourne campus, at select venues around Melbourne and interstate and/or in workplaces around Australia.

For further information around competency-based training, CAL’s RTO details and CAL’s Scope of Registration you can visit www.training.gov.au.

Marketing

CAL applies strong ethical standards in relation to marketing our services and we adhere to the Standards for RTO’s 2015 (Standard 4, Clause 4.1) relating to accuracy and integrity of marketing. We market vocational education and training products with integrity, accuracy and professionalism, avoiding vague and ambiguous statements. In the provision of information, no false or misleading comparisons are drawn with any other provider or course.

For all nationally accredited programs, all CAL marketing and information collateral-clearly shows, the relevant course and unit code as well as the nationally accredited course and unit titles. CAL makes every effort to offer learners the most recently endorsed and up to date qualifications and units.

CAL does not outsource nor work with course brokers or other third-party service providers. You can be certain that any courses offered by CAL will be delivered entirely by CAL staff. You can also be sure that the College for Adult Learning will award your Testamur and Record of Results (and not some unfamiliar third party).
Student Selection and Entry Requirements

Participants are nominated by their employers or self-nominated to commence suitable training programs. All participants are required to complete an agreement to register for the course, and a formal enrolment form. An induction/coaching session is then undertaken where participant information, course information (including study schedule and Language, Literacy and Numeracy assessment [LLN]) will be completed to ensure participants are enrolled in a suitable program.

In many cases, a Professional Learning Consultant or Specialist Coach will talk to a prospective student prior to their enrolment to determine their suitability to the course and, where required, recommend a more suitable course or level of study.

While there are no formal entry requirements into CAL courses, CAL specialists may recommend some additional industry experience and/or underpinning knowledge and/or skills as necessary to successfully complete a specific course. If you are unsure as to the appropriateness of the training program you wish to complete, please contact your coach to discuss your needs. Our experienced coaches and course advisors will assist you to select the most appropriate level and course.

As well as relevant vocational skills, all potential students may be assessed as to their Language, Literacy and Numeracy (LLN) skills before being accepted into a specific program of study. All our courses require a proficient knowledge of written and spoken English. This requirement is due to the fact that all nationally accredited qualifications are based on a workforce that has English as its primary work and communication language. Therefore, all assessment activities are based on the ability of the student to demonstrate their knowledge, and application of skills and attitude as they apply in an Australian workplace or other suitable simulation/case study.

Any individual applying to undertake a course with CAL must fulfil any stated course prerequisite requirements; these can be found within the course information.

Enrolment

Before starting a course with CAL, you will need to complete an enrolment form. This enrolment form will request some personal information including your full legal name, home address and contact details. In addition, you will be asked to provide details about any disability, medical conditions, literacy difficulties or learning difficulties you may have. These questions are important as they enable your training program to be tailored to your needs. All information gathered in the enrolment form is confidential and will only be used for training and/or assessment purposes and for government regulated reporting requirements.
CAL recognises the importance of student privacy and is committed to protecting any personal information we collect in accordance with the National Privacy Principles. To read our Privacy Statement and Privacy Policy visit our website at: https://collegeforadultlearning.edu.au/student-documents/

Course Duration

All CAL enrolment periods run for 24-months from the date of enrolment. Most courses offered by CAL are self-paced so that you can study at times that suits you. Your coach will discuss and agree a planned time frame and completion date with you. If you do not complete your course within the required time frame your enrolment may be cancelled. If you wish to extend your enrolment beyond the date specified on your learning plan or for a period longer than 24-months, then you must discuss this with your learning coach. Extensions will usually be granted provided the student has a ‘reasonable’ need for doing so and, provided the student honours the conditions of the extension by following a regular study plan that demonstrates a commitment to study and, in line with the deferred timeframe.

Global certification programs and short courses are subject to the conditions advertised with them. Some short courses come with an additional month of optional coaching support whereby the participant can contact a coach over the phone, email or via Skype to seek help and/or support in applying their learning in the workplace. Various conditions may apply for different short courses and/or certification programs. All these programs can be accessed for a discrete period of time (this is published with the marketing information). If you are unsure how long your access to a non-accredited short course or certification program is, please ask your course advisor.

Access to Coaching Support

The College staff will do all they can to help you to successfully complete your online, blended or face to face program of study. To this end the College offers unlimited coaching support for all qualification programs (unless otherwise stated in promotional and/or pre-enrolment information).

Coaching support is available Monday – Friday during and after working hours. You can usually access a coach prior to 9am and, up to 7.30pm at night. Coaching may also be available on weekends by special arrangement.

When you commence a qualification program online, you will receive access to an online ‘welcome’ video as well as an initial welcome coaching call. It’s important that all new students watch the ‘welcome’ video as it will walk you through the program and its structure and also tell you more about what to expect. Then, at your first coaching call, your coach will discuss your learning plan with you and answer any questions you may have with regard to your learning. Where applicable, your coach will also talk about Recognition of Prior Learning and explain how RPL could be applied to your circumstances. Where the option is available, your coach may also suggest alternative elective units that may better suit your workplace and/or the job or role you are working towards. Once you are clear on your study needs and, have agreed with your coach on any suggestions made, your coach will then generate your study plan or ‘Individual Learning Plan (ILP) and send it to you via email for your approval and signoff. It’s important that you carefully check through your ILP and agree with what is included. It is a condition of enrolment that CAL has on file a current, approved ILP for all students. In line with CALs commitment to flexible learning, you are encouraged to make changes to your ILP as needed (and to reflect your busy work/home life). This is particularly important if these changes affect any key milestones in the plan such as the completion date and/or assessments due dates. If you need to update your ILP, please do so and email it back to us at students@collegeforadultlearning.edu.au so that we have on file an updated and approved ILP incorporating these changes.

Once you have received your initial coaching call, it is your responsibility, as an adult learner, to book further coaching calls as you required them.

CAL offers a number of options to assist students in their learning and to provide help with the course and answering questions such as locating documents, submitting draft assessments and so on that can be accessed via the student support page at: https://collegeforadultlearning.edu.au/coaching/. We encourage all students to select the option that best suits their needs including:

- Booking a call to speak to your learning coach at a time and day that suits you best,
- Contact student support and receive a response back within 48 hrs or,
- Start a live chat session and get an instant reply to your question.

CAL also maintains a list of frequently asked questions that you can access to get more information about general course and assessment queries, support and accessibility and technical issues.

When booking coaching times; CAL provides a half hour or 15-minute window of time for each call. If your coach is calling you at 11am, and you booked a half hour appointment this means you have been allocated the half hour between 11am and 11.30am. If you miss your call window, your appointment will be cancelled, and you will be required to book in again.

PLEASE NOTE: Along with the options available for students to make contact with CAL, the CAL team will also contact all students at regular intervals throughout their course duration. The purpose of these contacts is to touch-base and check that you’re okay with your study, on-track with your study schedule and, from time to time, provide some additional motivation to re-engage with your study and so on.
CAL keeps a record of all contact (and attempted contact) we engage with our students along with detailed coaching notes that also helps us to recognise and support your learning journey.

Termination and Cancellation of Enrolment

Cancellation by the College

The College may (at its sole discretion), cancel any enrolment before the commencement of the course by giving notice to the prospective student. On giving such notice, the College shall repay the student any sums paid in advance of the price for that course.

Once the student has commenced the course and, throughout the duration of the course, the College may not cancel the student’s enrolment save for the exception in the event that the student:

- Becomes insolvent, convenes a meeting with creditors or proposes or enters into an arrangement with creditors, or makes an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.

The College shall not be liable to the student for any loss and damage whatsoever arising from a cancellation of enrolment in accordance with our Terms and Conditions and this Student Handbook.

Without prejudice to the College’s other remedies at law, in the event that the College cancels the student’s enrolment during the course by virtue of the student’s insolvency then the prevailing price for that course whether or not due on the day of cancellation, shall become immediately payable by the student; and the date of cancellation shall be taken as the due date.

The College will terminate a student’s enrolment after 24 months from the date of initial enrolment and issue a statement of attainment for any/all units completed by this date. If the student wishes to re-enrol then additional course fees apply. An exception to this rule may be made where the student has requested an extension (in writing) at least three months prior to the stated end date. For further details regarding extensions please see out CAL Course Extensions Policy located here: https://collegeforadultlearning.edu.au/student-documents/.

Cancellation by Student

The student may cancel their enrolment and withdraw from their course within thirty (30) days of their date of enrolment by providing written notice to the College. In the event that the student withdraws from the course within thirty (30) days, they will incur a $150.00 administrative fee.
Deferment of Enrolment

If you wish to defer your training prior to commencement or during a course of study on the grounds of compassionate or compelling circumstances (awarded at the discretion of the College), please complete the Deferral Form located here: https://collegeforadultlearning.edu.au/student-documents/
You will also find our Deferral Policy, for further information.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

If you have been working in your job for a while, you have probably developed some or many of the skills you need to work in your chosen field. CAL programs are designed to recognise those skills you already have (so you don’t have to ‘learn’ them again) and to give you the knowledge and the skills that you don’t have or perhaps have not fully developed yet. If you think you have the skills required, to satisfy a unit of competency or part thereof, then we encourage you to discuss this with your coach. He/she will give you the information for Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) and talk to you about what is required with regard to providing evidence to demonstrate your competency. They will also ensure that it is included in your Individual Learning Plan.

In deciding to apply for RPL you need to answer the following questions:

- Is your prior learning relevant to the course?
- Is your knowledge and skill level current? (Some fields of study change so rapidly that a skill achieved in the past may no longer be relevant or acceptable.)
- Is it transferable? A skill should be applicable to a number of settings and situations.
- Is it authentic? You will have to provide evidence or demonstrate that you have the knowledge and skill.
- Is your knowledge and skill appropriate to the level of the module or course?
- Do you have the underpinning and/or foundation skills that support this knowledge and skills?

If you are interested in RPL, please contact the college via “Contact a Coach” or by speaking with your learning coach on your booked ‘welcome’ call.

You will be sent the link to the RPL application form, along with the Guide to RPL. Once you have completed the form and supplied your supporting documents, you will be contacted to confirm receipt of your application and advised of when your industry expert coach will contact you with your RPL options, plan and any further requirements.
Credit Transfers

CAL recognises all Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF) qualifications and statements of attainment issued by any other Registered Training Organisation. If you have previously completed a unit(s) within the course you wish to enrol in, you may apply for a credit transfer, so you don’t have to complete the unit again.

To apply for a credit transfer, please submit either the original qualification document or a certified copy of your qualification or statement of attainment to CAL. Please note that copies of documents provided in support of Credit Transfer must be certified as true copies of the original documents. A certified copy means a certification by a designated authority and it is a true and accurate copy of the original.

Alternatively, you can give us permission to access your USI information online. Documents should contain the words "this is a true copy of the original" and be signed by one of the following:

Justice of the Peace         Medical Practitioner         Pharmacist
Bank Manager                  Post Office Manager         Police Officer
Member of Parliament         Accountant                  Teacher
Civil Marriage Celebrant     Minister of Religion         Sherriff

You can also have copies of your original documents certified in person by a member of the CAL Student Administration team by dropping into the CAL campus.

To apply for a credit transfer, the unit code you are applying for must be the same as the unit code you have previously completed. From time to time the Government updates the content of the unit and it becomes what is termed “superseded”. This means that the unit content has changed enough that you need to study the unit again and therefore there is no credit transfer available. You can check individual units for currency by accessing the website www.training.gov.au.

Alternatively, if the units you would like assessed for credit transfer have been reported and are visible on your Unique Student Identifier (USI) transcript, you may choose to authorise the College to access your USI transcript (instead of providing certified copies of your completed qualifications).

To authorise the College to view your USI transcript please visit www.usi.gov.au and log in, then follow prompts to provide your USI transcript to the College. Once you have provided access, please advise the College via your RPL application form or by using “Contact a Coach” so we can extract the data needed and process your credit transfer application.

For more information on the Unique Student Identifier, please see the CAL Policy here: https://collegeforadultlearning.edu.au/student-documents/

Student Rights and Responsibilities

CAL provides an adult learning environment. All staff and students are expected to act responsibly, to take due regard for the health and safety of others and to treat all staff and fellow students with courtesy and respect. As a student, you also have rights and responsibilities governed by State and Federal Legislation.

As a student, you have the right to:

- Be treated fairly and with respect by all students and staff,
- Not be harassed, victimised or discriminated against on any basis,
- Learn in a supportive environment which is free from harassment, discrimination and victimisation,
- Learn in a healthy and safe environment where the risks to personal health and safety are managed and minimised,
- Have your personal details and records kept private and secure, according to CAL’s Records Management policy,
- Access the information CAL holds about you,
- Have your complaints dealt with fairly, promptly, confidentially and without retribution, as per our complaints policy,
- Make appeals about procedural and assessment decisions in line with relevant policies,
- Receive training, assessment and support services that meet your individual needs and, as disclosed to CAL staff,
- Be given clear and accurate information about your course, training and assessment arrangements and your progress,
- Access the support you need to effectively participate in your training program,
- Provide feedback to CAL on the client services, training, assessment and support services you receive.
Responsibilities of Students

As a student of CAL, you acknowledge that you have responsibilities to protect your own rights and those of fellow students and CAL staff. Therefore, you will be required to take responsibility for:

- Having the required equipment and materials available and accessible for your training needs. These include (at a minimum): A PC or Laptop with Microsoft Office Suite (or equivalent), Internet access and email access,

- Your learning and asking for help when you need it. This includes letting us know when you require coaching and/or additional support, and preparing adequately for any pre-booked coaching and/or support sessions you request,

- Notifying CAL of any contact changes (email, phone, address etc.),

- Advising CAL of any difficulties or problems you may have with CAL staff or technology,

- Reading all relevant course and training information,

- Advising your assessor if you have previous skills and knowledge and are seeking recognition of this prior learning,

- Advising your assessor of any previous courses completed that may result in potential credit transfers for the course you are enrolled in,

- Monitoring your progress by self-assessing your skills and knowledge against the competency standards in your qualification (and each unit of study), and successfully completing the quiz for each unit of study,

- Watching all core tutorial videos and completing core activities within the online learning program as required and/or adhering to the learning plan schedule developed in consultation with your learning coach,

- Making regular contact with your coach/assessor,

- Indicating whether you are ready for assessment at the scheduled times or seek alternative assessment dates by making a formal, written request,

- Completing all assessment tasks, learning activities, end of unit quizzes and other assessment related activities honestly and without plagiarism, ensuring all work is your own,

- Submitting all assessment tasks as per requirements unless otherwise discussed with your coach with a completed declaration attached,
● Retaining evidence of your working notes and assessments and any other documents along with your journal reflections and notes of any other references you’ve accessed, in your portfolio of evidence/learning journal and presenting this for assessment,

● Making copies of all assessments and any work submitted electronically or in hard copy for your own records or, in case of lost work,

● Discussing any concerns regarding the training course, session activities and your ability to learn with your coach,

● Advising your coach if you require any special adaptive equipment or support for the training course and ensuring you have the necessary equipment to learn online,

● Participating in course evaluation and providing feedback,

● Making payments for your training within agreed timeframes.

As a student interacting with other students and staff you should:

● Treat all people with fairness and respect and do not do anything that could offend, embarrass or threaten others,

● Not harass, victimise, discriminate against or disrupt others,

● Treat all others and their property with respect,

● Respect the opinions and backgrounds of others,

● Follow all safety policies and procedures as directed by staff,

● Report any perceived safety risks as they become known,

● When interacting with students and CAL staff via social media or student forums, you should not post anything that another could find offensive or disrespectful and only post or comment in a constructive, respective way as per CAL’s social media use guidelines.
Responsibilities of CAL to Students

CAL respects the rights of each individual and acknowledges that all behaviour should enhance learning. We are committed to delivering a high-quality service and, to this end require all staff and students to comply with the College’s policies and procedures.

The College for Adult Learning will:

- Provide you with a safe and healthy learning environment,
- Provide you with a learning plan (containing a training and assessment schedule),
- Provide you with the appropriate unit of competency details included in your plan,
- Treat you with respect,
- Follow all legislation affecting the learning environment,
- Provide opportunities to practice the skills and knowledge required,
- Deliver and record training and assessment outcomes,
- Provide you with access to your file records (if requested in writing as outlined in the policy),
- Set up work tasks to provide training and coaching to help achieve the competency standards in your training plan,
- Provide learning resources and recommend other resources for further learning opportunities,
- Work closely with you to prepare you for assessment when you are ready and encourage self-assessment,
- Assess your skills and knowledge through the use of work-based tasks, simulations, case studies, observation and questioning using assessment tools developed for the purpose,
- Do all we can to provide alternative options for assessment for those students with learning disabilities or those who require reasonable adjustments (as per our Reasonable Adjustment Policy),
- Give feedback to you on your progress and comments on draft assessments,
- Provide results and review the assessment process after assessment,
- Remind you of the appeal’s process and options for further assessments if you are unhappy with the results.
Employer Funded Programs

The Student, Employer and College Relationship

Note: This section applies only to students completing a traineeship or other program funded or sponsored by your employer.

For employer or workplace sponsored programs, the learning program you are undertaking is a three-way partnership between yourself, your employer and The College. The aims of this partnership are tied to the learning goals as outlined in your Individual Learning Plan.

As with all partnerships, each person has specific roles and responsibilities which include communication and privacy obligations.

The nature of this relationship, including the specified roles and responsibilities for each entity, is outlined in the flowchart on the next page.
College Staff and the Employer meet to:
Discuss potential learning and development plans,
Undertake a business mapping and needs analysis.

College Staff and the Employer prepare a Business Profile including:
Staffing skills and development needs,
Environmental analysis, looking at the suitability of the workplace for training.

College Staff may undertake a training needs analysis. This based on discussion with:
The Employer,
Employer Nominated staff.

The Employer, together with staff, identifies who is nominated for the training.

A contract with the Employer and the College is prepared based on the above.
A contract with an Apprenticeship, Centre may also be signed at this point.

College staff meet with individual students and may undertake an individual training needs analysis.

The Individual Learning Plan is developed with the Student, the Employer (usually the line manager or employer), and College staff.

The Training Program begins, with the timetable being agreed to with the Coach, the student and the employer and all parties agree to abide by the details in the plan.
Responsibilities for Employer Funded Training Programs

You – the Student (as well as the responsibilities listed in ‘student responsibilities’ above):

- To accurately and honestly discuss your learning needs and skills with your coach,
- To continue to undertake your job and discuss work matters with your employer,
- To actively participate in the learning process.

Your Employer:

- To discuss with you and the College their aims and goals for the training,
- To provide a safe and appropriate work environment that supports the learning program,
- To negotiate with you time release requirements to attend training and to practice and apply training outcomes on the job as required,
- To actively participate in the learning process.

The College (usually your Coach):

- To undertake an accurate and honest training needs analysis,
- To inform you of changes or matters that may impact on delivery of the program as soon as possible,
- To develop an individual learning plan with you and your employer and to deliver a program that is in line with this plan,
- To assist you with matters that may affect your learning,
- To prepare regular summary reports (as agreed in contract) to employer on group learning to date,
- To actively participate in the learning process.

NOTE: In line with the Privacy Legislation, CAL staff will not release any information regarding a student’s progress to an employer without written permission received from the student.
Complaints

CAL approaches complaints as an opportunity to improve services and communication, to this end we undertake to deal with all complaints in a responsive and timely manner. Complaints should be made using the Complaint Form located on our website. All complaints will be dealt with by the authorised manager and a written response provided to the complainant. If you are not satisfied with the outcome, then you can refer the matter to the Director of Learning and Development. Further details of the College policy and procedures for complaints can be found on the website.

Learners can access our policies around complaints and the appeal’s process by visiting http://collegeforadultlearning.edu.au/student-documents/

Access and Equity

Access and Equity is about working in an inclusive manner, aiming for equality for all our clients whilst recognising there may be individual needs or differences between them. CAL is committed to equity and discrimination legislation and endeavours to work with each student to meet their needs. We are committed to providing an environment which is free from discrimination and harassment. Students will be provided with equal opportunity and will not be discriminated against on the basis of certain attributes as described by the Equal Opportunity Act 2010.

It is unlawful to discriminate on the basis of the following attributes: sex, impairment, marital status, physical features, age, pregnancy, breastfeeding, industrial activity, religious belief or activity, lawful sexual activity, political belief or activity, parental status as a carer or personal association (whether as a relative or otherwise) with a person who is identified by reference to any of the above attributes.

A student should never feel that they are unable to complete their training for any reason. To this end it is important that you discuss any specific requirements you may have with your assessor or coach. Specific requirements such as literacy and numeracy will be built into your individual learning plan where required. And suggestions for additional, remedial options outside of CAL may also be made in acknowledgement of specific student requirements (that fall beyond the remit of CAL). Further information on equity and equal opportunity legislation can be found at the Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission, HREOC, web site http://www.hreoc.gov.au/.

If you have a disability and require specialist equipment, modification to the work place or other specific workplace support, please see our Reasonable Adjustment Policy at: https://collegeforadultlearning.edu.au/student-documents/
CAL’s policy sets out the Access and Equity principles and processes to which we are committed in operating as a Registered Training Organisation (RTO), and is based on the following principles:

- Providing and maintaining training services that reflect fair and reasonable opportunity, and consideration for all students and staff, regardless of race, colour, religion, gender or physical disability, regardless of the prevailing community values,

- Equity for all people through the fair and appropriate allocation of resources and involvement in Vocational Education and Training (VET),

- Equality of outcome within Vocational Education and Training for all people, without discrimination,

- Access for all people to appropriate quality Vocational Education and Training programs and services

- All CAL participants have an equal opportunity to successfully gain skills, knowledge and experience through the training and assessment services of the College.

Student Support

The College conducts pre-enrolment interviews and introductory coaching sessions with all students. We also prepare individual learning plans before the commencement of study. Through these processes we will ask you to identify any specific and/or additional needs that may impact on your study and/or ability to study fully with us.

The more honestly you can communicate with your learning coach the more we will be able to assist you to get the most out of your learning with CAL.

CAL staff are able to support your studies in a variety of ways. These could include identifying:

- Learning options, appropriate programs and reasonable adjustment,

- Support for language, literacy and numeracy assistance,

- Support services outside the College,

- Programs offered by other organisations (and accessed at the student’s expense).

All students have access to qualified training staff throughout their study with CAL who can be contacted by phone, email, text message, or Skype. As there are currently no professional welfare and guidance staff employed by CAL, such support may include referral to appropriate counsellors or agencies if needed. If we cannot provide assistance to you ourselves, we will assist with directions to obtain further external support.
Language, Literacy and Numeracy (LLN)

CAL is committed to assisting students with differing abilities to succeed. The literacy and numeracy levels you require to complete your chosen course are those consistent with the competency level of the course. You will be assessed informally for these skills levels as you work through the registration and enrolment processes.

Some courses demand high levels of literacy and numeracy to successfully complete. If you are concerned about your levels of literacy and/or numeracy your learning coach or the training coordinator can help you determine if additional assistance may be required.

The College conducts Language, Literacy and Numeracy (LLN) assessments where necessary in order to ensure all participants are enrolled in an appropriate course and to identify any LLN assistance required by each participant. You may be asked to complete the LLN assessment at the commencement of your training with us that corresponds to the highest-level qualification in which you are enrolling.

CAL can recommend specialist assistance for students who require support with language, literacy or numeracy. Where appropriate and prior to commencement of training, participants identified as having language, literacy and numeracy difficulties that could affect their ability to complete their studies will be informed and recommended to external specialist services to assist them. CAL will work in cooperation with the external specialist service to ensure successful outcomes.

Processes will be implemented to identify, counsel and provide access to appropriate assistance for participants with special needs. Assistance will be administered to participants identified with special needs in the form of information, advice and/or referral to external specialist services/agencies/counsellors as required.

For more information please see our Language, Literacy and Numeracy (LLN) Policy here: https://collegeforadultlearning.edu.au/student-documents/
Competency Based Training

Competency based training and assessment can be tailored to meet the needs of each individual participant. It is evidence based, which means that you provide evidence of your competence to your facilitator/coach/assessor.

Evidence may be gathered by:

- Observation,
- Demonstration,
- Case studies,
- Written assignments,
- Role plays,
- Questioning,
- Projects,
- Reflections,
- Presentations.

Training and Assessment Standards

CAL is committed to delivering training and assessment consistent with the highest industry standards and in accordance with the Australian Qualification Framework (AQF) standards and ASQA requirements.

This means that CAL:

- Provides staff with all necessary induction and training,
- Conducts regular reviews of training and assessment products and outcomes,
- Consults with regulatory groups, staff, and participants to assess the quality of training and assessment,
- Always seeks to improve training and assessment strategies,
- Provides all the necessary resources to implement these processes.

CAL has adopted and maintains a quality assurance system for managing and monitoring all education and training operations and for reviewing staff and student satisfaction. This system consists of mechanisms for monitoring and evaluating training delivery, monitoring of assessment procedures, and stakeholder involvement in decision and policy making.

CAL regularly collects and reviews feedback from students and staff as well as industry sources, representatives, and advisory bodies. Industry consultation is used to review and improve our training and assessment practices and is recorded within the industry consultation area of CAL’s delivery and assessment strategy. CAL measures course and service quality and effectiveness in regular reviews of the strategy. Any industry feedback which indicates practices by the RTO and/or representatives that may be contrary to legislation, standards or codes of practice will be acted upon immediately.

The courses at CAL are delivered based on competency standards set by industry. Participant competency for each component of their course (units or modules) will be assessed by qualified staff using the prescribed assessment criteria. When a student can demonstrate competency for the required number of units of competency specified for their course, the full qualification will be awarded. Where a participant can demonstrate competency for units of competency less than the required number to achieve a full qualification, a Statement of Attainment may be issued for the units in which competency was achieved. Students who fail to demonstrate competency will be provided with information, advice and support and given further opportunity to demonstrate their competency. For further details see the CAL Assessment Policy at: https://collegeforadultlearning.edu.au/student-documents/.

At CAL we are continuously striving to improve the way we do things. If you have any feedback, we would love to hear from you.

Attendance and Training Engagement

At CAL we believe that, as mature age adults, you can and will take responsibility for your own learning.

When you enrol you will speak with a coach who will explain how the program works and what is required of you. Your coach will also work with you to develop your Individual Learning Plan (ILP) that indicates your start and finish date as well as key milestones along the way.

The ILP will outline your program schedule including dates to start and finish each online unit.

It is your responsibility to ensure you are actively engaged and progressing through your program requirements as agreed upon in your ILP. Your ILP indicates the nominal end date for completing requirements of each online unit. If you are not going to reach this milestone you should inform your coach in writing at least one week prior to the end date nominated. If there is a justified reason as to why you may be unable to complete all requirements within the timeframe, you may be granted an extension as agreed to by both parties and on the proviso of sufficient evidence being provided. Your coach/assessor may follow up with you either by phone or email to discuss your reasons for extending this date as well as agree on a new date. Together you need to ensure you are on target to complete the requirements and provide any support and assistance you may require.

While the CAL coaches will do all they can to monitor your progress, it is the responsibility of the student to contact CAL to request an extension.

If participants are unresponsive, that is they are not completing online tutorials and/or submitting assessment tasks as outlined in their ILP, and they have come to the end of their enrolment period, they will be mailed an intent to withdraw letter to the postal address provided which advises if no contact is made to CAL within a nominated period they will be withdrawn from the program. No refund amounts will be given.

Similarly, participants that are deemed un-contactable at this time, will have an intent to withdraw letter mailed to their postal address which advises if no contact is made within seven days they will be withdrawn from the program. No refund amounts will be given.

If you have a problem reaching your agreed timeframes for completion of your program of study, you must let your coach or facilitator know. CAL staff will always respond to students under duress who have unexpected or unplanned activities cutting into study time. We understand that, from time to time, job demands, and family responsibilities also get in the way. You just need to let us know.

When you enrol you will be notified of the timeframe provided for your course. Generally, for Certificate IV programs students are given one year to complete, while for Diploma and dual-programs may take up to two years to complete. Non-accredited online short courses may have a three-month login while the online global certification programs will also have a set nominated login timeframe.

No extensions are available for online short courses and certification programs.

For all qualification programs, extensions to the program end date must be received in writing at least six weeks prior to the nominated end date.

Students who withdraw or are withdrawn from a program will be provided with a statement of attainment (for qualification programs) for all units completed.
Withdrawals

If you wish to terminate your participation in a training program, please complete a withdrawal form, and read out Withdrawal Policy here: https://collegeforadultlearning.edu.au/student-documents/. This will ensure that your Statement of Attainment can be awarded to you promptly.

CAL will issue full credentials and Statements of Attainments that show the following:

- Name of the provider as shown on the Certificate of Registration,
- Name of the person receiving the qualification (the name the student enrolled with),
- Name of the course/training package qualification as shown on the Scope of Registration,
- Date issued,
- Authorising signatory of The College for Adult Learning,
- Nationally Recognised Training (NRT) logo where courses are nationally recognised,
- Units of competence achieved on any certification issued in relation to courses based on national competency standards.

You can read our Withdrawal Policy here: https://collegeforadultlearning.edu.au/student-documents/

Change of Details

You must inform CAL of any changes to your address or contact details within seven days of the change. Please contact Student Administration on 1300 907 870 or email at students@collegeforadultlearning.edu.au so that we can update your details. This prevents you from missing any relevant correspondence sent to your address and/or ensures you can be contacted at all times.

You must also inform CAL of any other change that may be relevant to your training status as a student. If your name changes at any time during your training you will need to provide your proof of name change document (i.e.: marriage certificate, name change certificate). An RTO representative will need to verify this or alternatively you can provide a certified copy of the proof of name change document. This information should be sent to Student Administration.
Assessment

Assessment is the process whereby you are able to demonstrate that you have the knowledge, skills and attitudes, including foundation skills, required for the certificate or diploma level you are undertaking. The College provides all students with extensive information on assessment for the program in which they are enrolled.

The College collects two types of assessment of learning:

- Formative assessment is the evidence collected of your progress throughout the learning program as you journey to competence. This formative evidence is found in the learning journal that contains all the activities you complete along with reflections and comments you make as you progress through each video tutorial on your way to completing a unit of study. It is also recorded in the coaching notes made by your specialist coach where you ask for help as you progress through a unit of study. Additionally, in a classroom or workshop environment, or interactive online webinar (or virtual classroom) your trainer would also collect evidence of your participation in classroom and group activities and so on.

- Summative assessment is the final assessment portfolio you submit on completion of a unit of study. It comprises three discrete parts: the learning journal (containing all the activities completed in the unit of study), the quiz and the set assessment task for the unit of study.

The evidence that you provide can take many forms and may include the following types:

- Direct Evidence – Direct evidence is obtained when you are observed actually performing in the workplace, by observation and/or work samples. It is evidence that can be observed or witnessed by the assessor. Examples include observations of workplace performance, oral questioning, demonstrations and/or a challenge test.

- Indirect Evidence – Indirect evidence is evidence of a candidate’s work that can be reviewed or examined by the assessor. This could include finished products, written assignments or tests, or a portfolio of previous work performed.

- Supplementary Evidence – Supplementary evidence is additional evidence that is used to verify or support evidence already gathered that indicates performance. Supplementary evidence includes reports from supervisors and/or line managers, colleagues and clients, testimonials and third-party reports, work diaries, training records, and so on.

The way evidence is collected and assessed is guided by the rules of evidence. Your assessor must reach an appropriate balance and ensure that, overall the evidence collected meets the rules of evidence:
• Validity – the evidence presented demonstrates the learner has the skills, knowledge and attributes as described in the unit of competency and associated assessment requirements,

• Sufficiency – the quality, quantity and relevance of evidence presented enables a judgement to be made of a learner’s competence,

• Currency – the evidence presented is either from the present or the very recent past, and

• Authenticity – the evidence presented for assessment is the learner’s own work.

It is the quality of all the evidence collected (including supplementary evidence collected by another party) that is important to making a sound judgement about competency - rather than the quantity, type and form of evidence, where it was collected or who collected it.

Flexible Assessments

It is also recognised that some students with a disability or medical condition may not be able to complete the assessment in the manner outlined in our reasonable adjustment policy and the guide to assessment document in your online course. Flexible assessment arrangements can be used if this occurs and where agreed to, will be noted in your learning plan.

At the beginning of each program of study, you will receive a copy of the Assessment Task for that unit. This tells you how you will be assessed. It also provides you with an assessment matrix that outlines how each activity conducted in the program, your learning journal or evidence portfolio and the end of unit quiz align to the criteria for assessment. You will also receive a detailed assessment guide for each unit of competency you are completing. This guide outlines what is required for assessment as well as the weighting each component of the assessment has in the final assessment judgement.

For further information, access our ‘Reasonable Adjustment Policy’ here:

It is your responsibility to read the information provided and to talk to your learning coach/assessor if you have any concerns about the set assessment and/or the timing of the assessment. You must submit assessment work on the specified dates.

The assessment process you will be required to participate in will be included in your learning plan completed on enrolment, prior to the commencement of the course. If at any time you believe you will be unable to complete the assessment, you are encouraged to contact your coach or facilitator to discuss your concerns.
Submitting Assessments

All assessments submitted to the College must also come with a student declaration that the work you are submitting is your own work. This declaration will be included when you submit your work via the ‘submit work’ function within your online course program.

NOTE: If you are submitting your assessment via email, you will need to locate, download, complete and sign the Assessment Cover Sheet. To access this document, please contact assessments@collegeforadultlearning.edu.au

Assessment Presentations

As the College offers management-related qualifications, all assessment tasks submitted to the College should comply with normal business standards for written work (including writing business reports, MOU’s, emails, plans, feasibility studies and other work documents).

When submitting an assessment to CAL, please ensure you include the following:

- A student declaration, declaring that the work being submitted is your own,
- Clearly label any submissions with your name, the assessment topic/unit code and date,
- Ensure any handwritten documents are clearly legible,
- Retain a copy of the original as it may not be returned,
- Where scanning documents for assessment you should ensure they are facing the right way up, are clearly labelled and easy to read,
- Electronic files should be labelled with your name, the unit code and the specific assessment details (i.e. Unit1/activity1/part a).
- All the activities for a unit of study should be included in the one file

Your assessor will always provide you with written feedback including a summary ‘Competent’ or ‘Pending’ result. If you would like more detailed assessor notes and/or further clarification on any aspect of your assessment submissions, you can request this from your coach/assessor.

The grading of the overall assessment of competency will be either ‘COMPETENT’, ‘PENDING’ or ‘NOT YET COMPETENT’.

‘PENDING’ assessments will be returned to students with a detailed explanation of what needs to be done in order to receive a ‘COMPETENT’ assessment.

Your assessor is also available to discuss the result with you. You may also be required to complete further training and development to bring your skills into line with a competent assessment.
Students will be offered up to three ‘PENDING’ results to give them every opportunity to demonstrate their competence. Failure to do so after three attempts will result in a ‘NOT YET COMPETENT’ result. Where a student has been deemed ‘NOT YET COMPETENT’, they will be required to re-enrol in the unit and will incur a re-enrolment fee of $150.00.

It is the responsibility of each student to read the assessment requirements for the specific unit of study and to be aware of all items required to be submitted for assessment. All items listed on an assessment task must be completed in full. Failure to address any part of the assessment task will result in a resubmission request sent to you from your assessor. It is also the responsibility of the student to request an alternative assessment option where applicable. Your assessor will make every effort to ensure the assessment you complete is relevant to your circumstances and/or any learning/assessment disabilities.

Draft Assessment Submissions

You have the opportunity to submit one draft assessment for review, per unit, before lodging your final assessment submission. This is a value-adding service that is often taken up for the first unit of study and by students who are unfamiliar with study and the assessment requirements. It is totally voluntary.

Draft assessments must be submitted via the Contact a Coach function in the student portal.

Feedback will be provided via email, generally within two to five working days of receipt of the draft submission.

Recognition of Prior Learning

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) acknowledges the full range of an individual’s skills and knowledge, irrespective of how it has been acquired. This includes competencies gained through formal study, work experience, employment and other life experiences. All participants undertaking training programs are entitled to have their prior learning recognised.

Currency is an important element of RPL and, while the requirements for this may change slightly from one qualification to the next, we strongly recommend that evidence presented is less than three years old. Your RPL assessor will advise you of the currency requirements for your qualification when you apply for RPL.

Participants seeking RPL will be provided with a copy of the RPL Guide and application form. An RPL Assessor will assist you in the process of understanding RPL, gathering evidence and demonstrating competence in conjunction with the completion of an RPL kit or evidence portfolio.
For information on the RPL application process, please request the RPL information pack from Student Administration coaching@collegeforadultlearning.edu.au

Issuing Qualifications

On successful completion of your course you will be presented with a Testamur and Record of Results comprising all competencies you have undertaken.

If you only complete part of the course, you will be issued with a Statement of Attainment for the competencies you have completed.

CAL will issue full qualifications and statements of results that show the following within 30 days of receiving evidence of all assessments being deemed competent and receipt of a finalised completion form:

- Name of the provider as shown on the Certificate of Registration,
- Name of the person receiving the qualification (as per the enrolment information provided),
- Name of the course/training package qualification as shown on the Scope of Registration,
- Date issued,
- Authorising signature of The College for Adult Learning, CEO and Principal,
- Nationally recognised training logo where courses are nationally recognised,
- Units of competence achieved on any certification issued in relation to courses based on national competency standards.

For more information, read our Issuance of AQF Qualifications Policy here: https://collegeforadultlearning.edu.au/student-documents/

Appeals

The competencies that you need to achieve for any qualification course are clearly outlined in the course curriculum and the Participant Guide. They can also be found on the College website and on the government website www.training.gov.au

In addition, the coach or assessor will discuss these with you and include them in your individual learning plan. The processes to be used for assessment are also outlined in the Participant Guide and the Student Guide to Assessment and course curriculum and you are encouraged to discuss these with your coach or assessor.
If you wish to appeal a final result of assessment, this must be made within 30 days from the result of assessment being issued by CAL. You have the right to appeal against a decision made in regard to a final result if you:

- Have been assessed as not yet competent against specific competency standards,
- Feel that you have sufficient grounds and evidence entitling you to be assessed as competent.

If submitting an appeal, you must adequately demonstrate you have the skills and experience to be able to meet the learning outcomes/performance criteria and foundation skills of units you are appealing against.

You have the ability to submit (attempt) any assessment task three times. If you don’t agree with a decision of Not Yet Competent, you must appeal within 30 days from the result of assessment being advised by CAL.

In the first instance, assessment appeals should be made with your assessor who may re-assess the submission and/or ask another assessor to conduct an assessment. The results of this additional assessment process will be provided to you in full. If you are still not satisfied with the decision, you may appeal results by writing to the Director Learning and Development requesting a review.

To allow the Director to make a fair and equitable determination you are encouraged to read our Assessment Appeals Policy and then to make your appeal using the Appeals Form available on our website at: http://collegeforadultlearning.edu.au/student-documents/

The Director Learning and Development will respond to you in writing, within seven working days of receipt of your written request, stating the judgement and (where applicable), any action to be taken.

Occasionally an independent assessor may be asked to assess the evidence again. Where this occurs, the candidate may incur the cost of this assessment. Any costs associated with this process will be set out in the response from the Director.

RPL Appeals

Appeals of any RPL decisions must be made in writing within 30 days from the result of assessment being advised by CAL. You have the right to appeal a decision made in regard to your application for RPL if you have sufficient grounds to believe you are entitled to be granted RPL or can provide evidence to adequately demonstrate the skills and experience required as per the learning outcomes of units of competency RPL has been applied for. Before appealing any assessment decision, you should ensure you understand the principles that underpin VET Assessment practices.
Timelines for Issue of Qualifications and Results

You will receive-confirmation of your assessment lodgement within two days of submitting your assessment and your assessment will then be assigned to an assessor. Assessments must be submitted in full and with the completed cover sheet attached, or by using the ‘submit work’ function online. Incomplete assessment submissions will not be assessed until all components have been submitted for assessment.

The College assessors will provide written feedback by email of their assessment decision within two weeks (excluding public holidays) of the receipt of your assessment.

Testamur’s will be issued within 30 days of the student’s completion of the qualification.

Appeals lodged against assessments must be made within 30 days of receiving the assessment results. CAL staff will examine these appeals and a result of the appeal will be provided to the student within 14 days of the day of the lodgement of the appeal.

Course Evaluation and Feedback

Feedback and other information provided to us about our training and assessment processes and learning programs is very important to us, as it allows us to improve our service delivery and to plan for future programs. The College conducts regular course evaluations in several ways.

All students are encouraged to participate in evaluating course content and delivery and will be supplied with an Australian Skills and Quality Authority (ASQA) approved Learner Questionnaire at the completion of their studies. For online study, students will be asked for feedback at the completion of each learning module or unit of study online.

Employers who sponsor students for training courses will also be asked to formally evaluate our programs.

The National Centre for Vocational Education Research also conducts surveys on behalf of the government regulators and may contact you to invite your participation. This research provides valuable information for training organisations and governments. We therefore encourage our students to participate should they be given the opportunity.

Further opportunities to provide suggestions, feedback and comments can be made during your regular coaching sessions, halfway through your studies, upon completion of every online learning unit and on completion of your course. You can also provide feedback directly to us via email to either your assessor or coach or to students@collegeforadultlearning.edu.au
All comments and suggestions are collated and reviewed for input into our program evaluation and internal review processes and may also be used in validating our assessment systems and processes.

Resume Reviews and Assistance with Career Planning

Upon completion of their studies, the College offers all students free assistance with updating and reviewing their resume and cover letter.

CAL has developed a template for resume’s that you can access free of charge by contacting your coach.

CAL also provides one free review of a student’s draft resume and cover letter upon completion of their course. Students can access this service by contacting student services at students@collegeforadultlearning.edu.au.

In order to get the maximum value out of this service, we recommend you advise us as to what career and/or jobs you plan to apply for and, where practical, include the job advertisement with your CV.

CAL’s Career Advisor will usually get your CV and cover letter back to you within one week (seven days). Student Services will advise you of the anticipated wait time upon application.

All students are entitled to use this free service on one occasion only.

Additional Career Planning Services (Fees Apply)

CAL’s Career Advisors are able to provide some additional services to assist students in their career planning, promotions and/or job placements.

Services include (but are not limited to):

- Detailed and comprehensive – rewrite or development of CV and cover letter to address a specified and sought-after role or function,

- One-to-one coaching to prepare for interview questioning,

- Other advice, tips and guidance with regard to job hunting, using agencies etc.
Fees

Fees and charges are published in our Terms and Conditions. These include course fees plus any additional costs such as administration fees as well as additional fees for career planning services as listed above.

The College will safeguard participant fees and has refund policy that is fair and equitable. Fees are payable on commencement of a course of study.

For online students and RPL applications the course/assessment commences immediately on payment of fees. No fees are collected in advance of commencement.

RPL Fees

A standard application and processing fee of $300.00 will be charged for each RPL application regardless of whether or not an applicant decides to proceed with a full RPL application.

The full cost for an RPL application is posted on the College website and provided in promotional brochures. This amount will be deducted from your total fees and is non-refundable.

This processing fee allows our professional assessors to appropriately advise you so that you can decide whether to proceed with your RPL application and compile an evidence portfolio or to undertake a training and assessment pathway.

In some cases, we work with business and trainees where the individual student will not incur any fees. In this situation fees will be negotiated with the sponsoring employer.

If you require and further information on this, please contact Student Administration students@collegeforadultlearning.edu.au

Short Course Fees

All non-accredited short courses offered by CAL are on a fee basis, with the details listed as part of the course details and on the course brochure.

Payment of Fees

Students have the two following options for payment:

- Online payment in full immediately after registration,
- Payment via a payment plan to be registered for immediately after registration.

Students who choose to pay via a payment plan are required to agree to a Direct Debit Service Agreement with the College and acknowledge the conditions set out therein.
Default

For the purpose of this clause, the “default date” is the day after the due date; and the “outstanding balance” is the price, less any part payments made by the student prior to the default date.

After the default date, the outstanding balance shall include, all applicable fees and charges under this Agreement.

- To the extent permitted by law, if the College does not receive the outstanding balance on or before the default date the student acknowledges and agrees that:

  o In the event the College refers the student to a debt collection agency and/or law firm for collection of the outstanding balance, the student shall be liable for the recovery costs incurred, and if the agency charges commission on a contingency basis the student shall be liable to pay as a liquidated debt, the commission payable by the College to the agency, fixed at the rate charged by the agency from time to time as if the agency has achieved one hundred per cent recovery and the following formula shall apply:

  \text{Total debt including commission and GST} = \frac{\text{Original debt \times 100}}{100 - \text{commission \% Charged by the agency (including GST)}}

  o In the event where the agency is Prushka Fast Debt Recovery the applicable commission rate for the amount unpaid is as detailed on www.prushka.com.au

  o In the event where the College or the College’s agency refers the overdue account to a lawyer the student shall also pay as a liquidated debt the charges reasonably made or claimed by the lawyer on the indemnity basis.

Other Charges

Students may be charged for:

- Replacement copies of Statements of Attainment/Testamur,
- Direct mail costs for the return of hard copy assessment portfolios,
- The cost of USB sticks for alternative online course delivery,
- Additional coaching for online programs,
• Travel and associated costs where an RPL assessment requires a site visit by a CAL Assessor,
• RPL appeals where this requires an independent assessor.

Actual charges and costs for specific additional services can be obtained from Student Administration.

Some qualifications/certifications may require a textbook. If this is the case, you will be advised prior to enrolment if a textbook is required and the cost of purchasing.

Refunds

A refund or partial refund may only be made in the following circumstances:

• Where CAL is unable to provide the course for which the enrolment and payment has been made,
• Where the student has cancelled within 30 days of their date of enrolment,
• Where a student suffers a serious illness or injury that prevents them from actively undertaking their studies both at present and in the foreseeable future and, where a deferral or course extension would not be beneficial. This does not include any pre-existing illness or injury that the student already had when they enrolled with CAL. The student must produce satisfactory evidence to support their application including, but not limited to a statement from the treating medical practitioner and a signed statutory declaration. NOTE: This does not usually apply to other parties for whom the student may be responsible.
• Where there is a credit relating to an overpayment.

Where a student withdraws from a course later than four weeks after the course commencement date, no refund will be provided.

Where a student withdraws from the course within 30 days but has used the services of the College, the cost of these services along with the advertised administrative fee will be deducted from the refund offered.

Refunds will not be made in the following circumstances where the student:

• Changes their mind,
• Finds the course too difficult or they don’t like the online format,
• No longer requires the course,
• Employment status or personal circumstances change,
• Circumstances change due to family illness or other issues.
CAL is not required to offer a refund if the student has changed their mind about the course they have chosen. It is the student’s responsibility to ensure that they have enrolled in the correct course and that they have the ability to complete the course. CAL may, depending on the circumstances and progress through a course of study, allow a student to change their enrolment from one course to another at no additional cost where this better reflects the student’s changed circumstances etc.

CAL encourages all potential students to read and understand the course information and to talk to a CAL course advisor before enrolling.

Full Refund (including enrolment fee)

In the unlikely event of CAL cancelling a course, a full refund including enrolment fee will be offered. CAL will make every effort to reschedule the course and offer an alternative place to the student. The student is not obliged to accept alternative offers and may seek a full refund instead.

Full Refund (excluding enrolment fee)

Where a student withdraws from a course prior to the course commencement date a full refund of the tuition fee will be provided. The administration fee is non-refundable.

Partial Refund

In exceptional circumstance, CAL may authorise a partial refund (up to 50% of the total fees and charges) for a student who withdraws more than four weeks after the commencement date of their course. The review of this decision and the proportion of fees to be refunded will be at the discretion of CAL and will be taken into consideration case by case.

Payment Plans

By registering for a payment plan with CAL, students agree to pay the full amount of the enrolment fee + account keeping fees for the duration of the payment plan.

Payment plans can be cancelled within the first 30 days of enrolment only (less the $150.00 administration fee). To cancel a payment plan after 30 days, full payment of the remainder of the course is required. Alternatively, the payment plan can be readjusted for a shorter period of time.

To request a payout figure please call 1300 907 870 or email: accounts@collegeforadultlearning.edu.au

In extenuating circumstances, CAL may defer a student’s enrolment and payments for a period not greater than three months.
Refunds for Contracted/Employer Sponsored Programs

In most cases where workplace training is sponsored and paid for by the business/employer the employer will have a training contract signed with the College and this contract outlines conditions of refund. Where there is no contract in place the clause above applies.

Refunds for RPL

Once a candidate has submitted the RPL Application and paid the (calculated) fee for RPL, no refund will be given. The full fee, as stated by the College in written documentation published on the website is payable prior to the first telephone interview. Once the candidate schedules and/or commences the initial assessor (telephone) interview the RPL fee is non-refundable. The fee payable for RPL is for the services outlined in the RPL brochure only.

NB: Normal course fees as advertised are payable for candidates seeking to up-skill after an RPL assessment. No discount will be given for these candidates.

Applying for a Refund

Requests for refunds must be submitted to Student Administration in writing and with any supporting documentation and/or evidence attached (note: CAL can only accept original documents or certified copies of same). The application will be sent to the College Finance Director for review within five working days. Students will be advised of the decision either by phone or email. This decision is final, and no further correspondence will be entered into. Approved refunds will be processed within 14 days of the approved notification.

For more information on any of our fees and charges, please read our Terms and Conditions: https://collegeforadultlearning.edu.au/student-documents/

Our Quality Framework and RTO Compliance

As an RTO, CAL must comply with the VET Quality Framework. Part of this includes:

- Standards for NVR Registered Training Organisations – the set of nationally agreed standards that ensure high quality VET services throughout Australia.

- Australian Quality Framework (AQF) – the national policy for regulated qualifications in the Australian education and training system. Only RTO’s can issue AQF qualifications and deliver training and assessment services.

Our training and assessment procedures are flexible and are designed to take into account your needs. We will ensure that:
• Technical support is available to all participants enrolled in our online courses,
• You have access to fully qualified training and assessment staff,
• All training and assessment will be to the nationally set standard prescribed in the relevant training package or accredited course material,
• This means that the training and assessment you receive from us is done in accordance of the VET
  Quality Framework and any qualifications you achieve with us will be recognised anywhere in Australia.

CAL has documented policies and procedures covering aspects of the work it conducts and the administration of its operations. Copies of these policies and procedures are freely available to all CAL clients, students and staff upon request to Student Administration

students@collegeforadultlearning.edu.au

During the progress of each course you may be asked to complete a survey or feedback sheet. You are asked to complete these as honestly as possible as they help us improve our service.

The College for Adult Learning is committed to protecting an individual’s right to privacy. CAL will take reasonable steps to protect the personal information from misuse and loss and from unauthorised access, modification or disclosure and, to prevent unauthorised use or disclosure of information contained in the student record.

In compliance with the Privacy Amendment (Private Sector) Act 2001, CAL will only request personal information that is relevant to enrolment and the conduct of the course. CAL recognises the importance of client confidentiality and for the purposes of administration and monitoring all records will be kept in secure, lockable storage for paper files and password protected access rights to computerised records. Data will be entered on the CAL Learning Management system which is AVETMISS compliant and student records will be transferred annually to the Victorian Government student records’ management system. This ensures your academic records are securely stored in the government archive for historical archiving.

CAL’s purpose in collecting information is to:
• Be aware of the student’s needs throughout their period of enrolment,
• Undertake daily administration, satisfy legal obligations, including duty of care.
Notification regarding changes to personal information should be provided to the CAL Student Administration as soon as practicable students@collegeforadultlearning.edu.au

CAL will not disclose personal information about any individual without first obtaining the written consent of the individual.

CAL also operates a workplace delivery model of training. This often involves a three-way partnership between CAL, the student and their employer. Further information on the nature of this relationship can be found earlier in this handbook.

Maintaining Privacy

At times, there may be matter that you (the student), discuss with your employer or with your coach that you wish to keep private and there may also be matters that College staff discuss with your employer that likewise are of a private nature.

For more information please read our Privacy Policy here:

Disciplinary Procedures and Code of Conduct

Code of Conduct

CAL expects all staff and students to abide by a code of conduct that recognises the rights of all to:

- A safe learning and working environment,
- An environment free from discrimination, harassment and/or vilification,
- Behaviour that is not disruptive or offensive to others nor likely to bring the reputation of CAL into disrepute,
- Assessments undertaken in the spirit of fairness,
- The business of CAL being carried out in a fair and equitable manner.

Students and clients are therefore expected to:

- Act honestly, conscientiously and reasonably at all times, having regard to their responsibilities whilst participating in the learning program,
- Treat other students, and staff, with courtesy and respect, without harassment, or physical or verbal abuse or discrimination to prevent an atmosphere of hostility or intimidation,
- Report suspected incidents of harassment or discrimination,
- Not attend CAL activities under the influence of non-prescription drugs or alcohol,
• Respect the privacy of individuals and CAL.

For more information please read the Student Conduct Policy at: https://collegeforadultlearning.edu.au/student-documents/

Discipline Processes

CAL staff may impose penalties due to misconduct of students. Should behaviour be considered to be unacceptable, he/she will be issued with a general warning. Should the behaviour continue a request to modify the behaviour will be directly given and the individual will be warned that continuance of the behaviour will lead to dismissal of the session and possibly from the course.

Serious misconduct will result in exclusion from the course. Serious misconduct means theft, assault, being under the influence of drugs or alcohol or causing risk of injury or risk of a dangerous event occurring. Serious misconduct will be dealt with strictly in accordance with the relevant State and Commonwealth law.

Where a student is expelled from the College no refunds are payable.

Plagiarism

The College is committed to supporting all individuals enrolled in CAL programs in their lifelong learning journey. In the process of learning we often read work written by others, consider their ideas or even copy processes developed by others. We usually learn by considering what others have learned before us and, when using this learning in a piece of work authored by us we must ensure we give credit to the person whose original thought or work it is. Plagiarism will not be tolerated at the College and severe penalties apply. Remember, plagiarism is not only about copying the words of another person, but also the use of ideas or data as well as verbal original thoughts of another person without giving credit to that individual. CAL uses a variety of plagiarism tools that will provide your assessor with details of any copied material along with where the copyright presides.

You will be charged with plagiarism if you:

• Copy from published sources without adequate documentation/notation,
• Purchase a pre-written paper (either by mail or electronically),
• Let someone else write a paper for you,
• Use another student’s work as your own,
• Pay someone else to write a paper for you,
• Submit as your own someone else’s unpublished work, either with or without permission.
For an initial or first charge of plagiarism being proven, this will result in the assessment in question being assessed as ‘Not Yet Competent’.

Where plagiarism continue to occur, despite written warning, the student may be expelled from the College following a formal written request from the assessor and at the discretion of the Director of Learning and Development. Where a student is expelled for plagiarism no fees will be refunded.

For more information please read our Plagiarism Policy at: https://collegeforadultlearning.edu.au/student-documents/

Records Management

The College ensures that its record keeping procedures comply with the quality standards of the relevant registering bodies. All client and student records are confidential. The College recording system ensures permanent backup of documentation to ensure the security of client and student documents. At all times these records shall be stored free from damage and theft in a place where access is limited to authorised members of staff.

Active files are kept in a secure, restricted area to ensure confidentiality. Inactive physical files are archived in a secure location for up to two years. Electronically recorded student records are kept for a period of 30 years to comply with registration requirements. Students wishing to obtain access to their record may make a formal written request to the Principal.

Records of assessment and outcomes of training and assessment conducted by CAL are recorded electronically in a format required by the registering authority on a learner management system (LMS). Once an assessor has recorded a result for your submitted work, it will be entered into the LMS by Student Administration no later than four weeks from the date of submission. All students are entitled to receive a record of results for units of competency completed on request.

For more information please read our Records Management Policy at: https://collegeforadultlearning.edu.au/student-documents/

Accessing Student Records

Student records are recorded at enrolment. These records are established electronically and may also be a hard-copy record. These records include, but are not restricted to:

- Registration form,
- Enrolment form,
- Fees: Invoices and receipts,
• Student identification,
• Applications for RPL,
• Assessment work/results,
• Learning plan.

Student records are entered and maintained on the College database by course administrators. All enrolment changes, unit results, attendance and study records and changes to personal data must be forwarded directly to Student Administration for data entry.

You may request a copy of your records by submitting a request using the Request to Access Training Records Form available at our website: https://collegeforadultlearning.edu.au/student-documents/

Workplace Health and Safety

It is your responsibility to:

• To protect your own health and safety and to avoid adversely affecting the health and safety of any other person,
• To not wilfully or recklessly interfere or misuse anything provided by the College in the interests of health, safety or welfare,
• To co-operate with health and safety directives given by staff,
• To ensure that you are not, by the consumption of drugs or alcohol, in such a state as to endanger your own health and safety or the health and safety of another person.

CAL recognises the importance of providing a safe and healthy environment for students, staff and visitors during their participation in work and training activities with the organisation. The College strives for excellence in workplace health and safety and is committed to providing an environment which is free from risks and conducive to the productivity and efficiency needs of its participants and others.

The College conducts all training and assessment as well as student interviews and meetings with care for everyone’s health and safety. All resources, equipment and the CAL campus is regularly checked for safety and to minimise hazards and potential risks. Fire safety equipment and procedures are checked and monitored regularly to ensure compliance with safety regulations and fire extinguishers are located throughout the building.
Compliance with Legislation

CAL meets the requirements of the OH&S Act 2004 (Victoria) and WHS Act 2012 and complies with all other relevant legislation, codes of practice, advisory and best practice standards as well as organisational policies and procedures.

Government Legislation

Current and future Acts/Legislation can affect CAL staff and customers. A full list of current legislation can be found at the Victorian Library website at www.dms.dpc.vic.gov.au and clicking on the Victoria Law Today link. All Acts can be searched by name or keywords.

CAL identifies and complies with relevant State or Territory laws including State/Territory legislation where applicable. The acts relevant to the operation of the College as an RTO are:

The Vocational Education, Training and Employment Act 2000

The purpose of this act is to:

- Establish a system for the effective and efficient provision of high quality vocational education and training to meet the immediate and future needs of industry and the community,
- Provide mechanisms for employees, employers, associations of employees or employers, and the community, to advise government on vocational education and training needs and priorities to meet those needs,
- Support the continued development of high quality training by and within industry,
- Facilitate the provision of vocational education and training that is relevant to employment and encourages the generation of employment opportunities,
- Regulate the registration of training organisations within the state,
- Meet the state’s obligations under national training arrangements about VET.

Commission for Children and Young People and Child Guardian Act 2000 and Regulation

This Act establishes the Commission for Children and Young People as an independent organisation with the aim of making all states a better place for children and young people. In relation to the Working with Children program, the Commission for Children and Young People’s functions include encouraging employers to develop their capacity to be safe and friendly for children, facilitating Working with Children background checking for child-related employment and reviewing the status of Prohibited persons.
The Australian Privacy Principles (APP’s)

CAL abides by the Australian Privacy Principles which regulate the handling of personal information. Employees only collect personal information by lawful and fair means and for lawful purposes that are necessary for, or that relate directly to, a function or activity of the agency. Employees must keep personal information secure, maintain its accuracy, and ensure that it is used only if it is relevant and complete.
